

Ontario Lacrosse Hall of Fame & Museum Announces 2021 Board of Directors

ST. CATHARINES, Ontario, June 11, 2021 —The Ontario Lacrosse Hall of Fame & Museum (OLHOF&M) is pleased to announce its 2021 Board of Directors.

“We are pleased to welcome two new members to our Board, Mary Sticca and Steven Thomas,” stated Chuck Miller, the OLHOF&M President. “Mary Sticca, from Niagara Falls, is the author of the 365 Days of Lacrosse and long time Zone 9 Zone Director, has joined our board. Steven Thomas, from Akwesasne, and a member of the Akwesasne Hall of Fame Board, will fill the role of Indigenous Director. Both Mary and Steven will be great additions to our board, and we look forward to working with them.”

About the Ontario Lacrosse Hall of Fame & Museum

The Ontario Lacrosse Hall of Fame & Museum, established in 1997, has the mandate to honour the names and deeds of those whose efforts brought fame to the Ontario Lacrosse Association and their member club(s), to themselves and to the game of lacrosse. Whose interest, dedication, integrity, and hard work for lacrosse resulted in an invaluable climate, which was beneficial to the game. The Hall of Fame maintains a museum in St. Catharines, Ontario where historical lacrosse artifacts and information are displayed and stored. The OLHOF&M is pleased to work with its partners, the St. Catharines Museum & Welland Canals Centre, the Ontario Lacrosse Association and Baron Rings. The Museum is open to the public at 1932 Welland Canals Parkway, St. Catharines, ON L2R 7K6.
